Look to all that
surrounds you,
Listen to the serenity
of your world.
Catch the scent
of joy and sorrow;
Reach out and touch someone who cares to share the bittersweet taste of life.

Our world keeps whirling - rushing the times by
and marking life
with happenings
Some go by with a wink,
Others,
surprise our essence.
compelling us to respond -
with a cloudburst of rain, or the dawnbreak of sun.

Remember those lazy days,
When you kicked back and felt as carefree as the wind?
Every adventure was special,
while the sparkling minutes turned to pass shining hours of the day.

Of course there were times
when you were trapped
with responsibilities.

Yet dreams
of faraway places and faces
still trimmed the corners of your mind.

And how about those mischievous twinklings,
When to do something sneaky was the biggest thrill of life -
Only to find out later it was just a crazy idea that was wonderful while it lasted!

At this time, Warren High pays tribute to our "golden bear" the character the yearbook was named for. Through the years, he has turned touched all of us to turn us into true "Warren Bears!"

All these feelings
had their meanings,
Sharing places - times -
people still recalled
Through the eyes and
shadows of Warren High,
Our world was real
and life was all.

ACADEMICSACADEMICS

ACADEMICS

In the following section, the El Oros covers academic activities at Warren High School. Basic courses such as Music, English, and Home Economics have expanded to offer classes such as Bachelor Living, Rock to Bach, and Humanities. The learning experience for Warren students occurred away from school as well as on campus: for instance, Biology classes went to study and observe the flora and fauna of Wilderness Park; Oceanography class and club learned more about the sea on their visits to Scripps Institute of Oceanography, San Onofre Nuclear Power Station, and a special cruise aboard a large oceanographic research vessel. Field trips such as these allowed more room for creativity and enlightenment. Warren has been active in both sports fields and academic areas. This section is dedicated to the students who explore the world of the mind.

Organizations produce. Though what they produce isn't always tangible, there is a product of which to be proud. Being a member of an Organization is much like work experience because of the hard work both members and Supervisors do to make their product, be it a note of music, an extra assembly, or the El Oroso, proof that "Bears do it better!"

It is in this classroom that reporters attempt what might be their future

Whether it be school hours, weekend hours, or sleeping hours, the El Oroso staff did their best to give Warren High a memorable yearbook. A lot of time and effort was spent to take that picture to fit that certain layout, to match that particular headline. Not only were their graphical abilities involved in the book, but their creativeness to write as well. The main theme of the yearbook class was "a staff that slaves together stays together", which produced a unique yearbook.

First and Second Semester

Our Problems are their Problems

1. Captured by the camera?, is First Semester Student Council. 2. Baby face Iba flirting with Roger Unice again! 3. Randy Guynn gets creamed by Noreen McCaughan at Council arranged assembly. 4. Second Semester Student Council still holding down the Fort.

Band Explodes with Sound

The Band showed their school spirit by participating in halftime shows of all home football and basketball games, traveled to away games, and performed at many of the assemblies. They also represented their city and school in area parades, formal concerts, and concert tours of district and area schools. The Band's goal as an Organization was to establish and maintain high standards of performance that will reflect pride in themselves, their school, and their community. This year they have reached their goal.

1. I wonder what Robert Barron is looking at? 2. Daydreaming between beats. 3. Intent direction always pays off. 4. Tuba tune-up.

Sing it Out—Sing it Strong

A strong branch of the Music Department which doesn't get all the publicity they deserve are the Choral Groups. Rehearsals, rehearsals, and still more rehearsals, coached by Mr. Frank Talenfeld, are an everyday occurrence for over seventy people who take part in either Vocal Ensemble or Girls Chorus. These people harmonize together to develop music reading skills, and achieve high standards of vocal performance.

1. Peggy Kinsall and Jane Ballek share sheet music.

2. Vocal Ensemble (alphabetically)-A. Alsbrook, J. Anderson, J. Cade, D. Chaddick, G. Chaddick, T. Dalton, S. Diess, R. Gardea, B. Gladson, D. Greenwalt, K. Greer, C. Henkleman, D. Hoffman, C. # Drama—Improvising the Improvisations

Room E-2 was a real center of budding talent as the Drama Department held their thirty-six hour Improvisation Marathon, on November ninth and tenth. Aside from just having fun, eighteen hundred dollars in sponsorships was raised to help pay for a trip to New York for eight deserving Thespians. The art of improvisation is to take a given situation and act it out, without any preparation beforehand. Fine talent was displayed by Jerry Blockburger, Michael Patterson, Matt West, Malinda Worley, Eric Boege, David Edwards, Val Morgan, and Patty Dolce (all of whom hung in there for the full thirty-six hours). Jonathan Winters eat your heart out!

1. Mike Patterson and Marie Brigulio act out the motions of a sewing machine. 2. Dave Edwards and Malinda Worley "boogie on down the line." 3. "Stop!" says Cindy Persion, "Eric's not worth it!" 4. Mandy Worley, Marie Brigulio, Jerry Blockburger and Judy Hickman become engine parts.

Banner spells it out

The flashy display of those sparkling letters that spell out WARREN, was again elaborately accomplished by the 1974-'75 Banner Squad. Proudly carrying their letters, Banner participated in both pre-game and halftime performances. Led by Sandy Criter and June Mekker, the Banner Squad marched ahead of the Band and Drill Team to announce the arrival of the Warren Bears.

1. Banner Squad (listed alphabetically): Head Sandy Criter, Shari Fisher, Diane Hagen, Renee Hornbeck, Cindy Herrera, Co-head June Mekker, Brenda Richardson.

We're the Warren Honeybears you've heard so much about

2. Captain Diana Scoles, Colonel Diane Ramos, Captain Sharon Cayer. 3. Drill Team Head Diane Ramos blows her whistle to end another great half-time performance.

Among the crowd of cheering students, pride is shown on the faces of every Honeybear. Representing our school, the girls participated in competitions and parades. They raised money by having paper drives and candy sales. Everyone is proud of the great group of girls who support the spirit of Warren.

Proud of our school are we cheering the Blue and Gold

1. Sophomore cheerleaders doing their thing, are Donna Spencer, Elaine Iba, Shelley Lumbattis, Vyrna Lindsay, and Alexis Holoboff. 2. Kathie Gum strikes a pose! 3. "Oh not that same old cheer again!" sighs Debbie de Schepper. 4. With feelings of anticipation, Meridee Kelby awaits the outcome of the JV's football victory. 5. Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheer proudly sing our Alma Mater. Cheerleaders are: Lynn Iba, Cindy Lumbattis, Lisa Wilson, Lisa Reiman, Kristie McKinnon, Valerie Miller, Marilyn Guastella, Patti Allen, Tami Bennett, Meridee Kelby, and Terri Purdy.

Night games, Day Games our Pep Squad is Best

Let's get a little bit Rowdy

Mascots

This year's mascots took first place at camp and were voted "Super Mascots." Always dreaming up hilarious antics are our own Nancy Bauer and Kerry Murray.

Junior Varsity Cheer

These six girls took second place at camp and also "Sweepstakes." They have fun making signs, thinking up new cheers, and yelling the best they can to show they care. Head Meri dee Kelby, Patti Allen, Lori Ross, Cindy Lumbattis, Lisa Reiman, and Valerie Miller are a great contribution to them.

Flag

First place winners in Competition, received the "Spirit Jug" at camp, and first place for "The Most Spirited Squad" are: Joan Long, Head Debbie Cleaves, Gayle Sobul, Karen Hansen, Linda Keays, Laura Lueke, Debbie de Schepper, and Maggie Ford. Precise timing is needed to gain the effect of the carefully planned out routines. Many hours of practicing is what makes this squad one of the best Warren has ever had.

Let's get Rowdy Tonight

Frosh-Soph Cheer

Just beginning their cheerleading talents these girls have proven that they are truly bears by taking first place in competition at San Diego State. In the short time that Elaine Iba, Donna Spencer, Verna Lindsay, Head Alexis Holoboff and Shelly Lumbattis have come together as a group they have shown the spirit that has always filled Warrens campus.

Song

Another first place winner at camp and was awarded "Sweepstakes", also won first place in competition . . . . Excitement stirred as the band played popular tunes while the pom pons shook from the graceful form of the song routines. Claylee Myers, Noreen McCaughan, Marilyn Moe, Cheryl Morck, Diane Birnie, Cathie Gum, Debbie Hypes, and Marlene Thomas add an extra touch of class to the atmosphere of enthusiasm.

Varsity Cheer

All pep squad members last year, these girls are back again and even better than ever. Terri Purdy, Lynn Iba, Tami Bennett, Kristie McKinnon, Marilyn Guastella, Lisa Lindsay, Lisa Wilson, and not shown Corinne Coronio all took third place at Aroyo competition. The work was hard but it was all made worthwhile by the friendships and hardships that have come about.

STUDENT LIFE STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT LIFE

Spirit weeks, pep rallies, and car shows were welcome interruptions to school days. United as friends, united as classes, and then united as WARREN, with what is uniquely known as "Bear Pride," we celebrated the victories, and suffered through the defeats. Class parties, Homecoming, and dress up days were bright spots among our studies. Time passes, and the gap between Teachers and Students slowly closed, the feeling of intrusion vanished, and the final outcome was Friendship. To look back on happenings such as these, we can pat ourselves on the back in the knowledge that we have had another good year of Student Life.

Homecoming

1. 1973 Homecoming Queen, Melinda Jansen crowns the new Queen Lisa Lindsay and adds her congratulations. 2. Ron Kutzke helps Sophomore Princess Valerie Miller from her car. 3. Jim Buell escorts Senior Princess Judy Berekoff. 4. Lisa Lindsay, 1974 Homecoming Queen. 5. Junior Princess Arlene Starkey and her escort Chris Carter. 6. Chip Parmelly escorts Senior Princess Teri Canzone. 7. Senior Princess Nicky Bartolic and her escort Jim Malmgren. 8. Freshman Princess, Donna Spencer is helped from her car by her escort Brett Hardon.

a Memory for All

Votes were tallied, the Queen is picked but not yet known. It's half time on the football field. The feeling of suspense is all around. Who will it be? The announcement is heard, for tonight is born a Queen. Tears of joy are shown, reality replaces dreams and memories go back into that little corner of your mind.

"Colour My World" sets mood

"Colour My World" was the theme of the Homecoming Dance which was held at the Sheraton Universal. An invitation was extended to all the student body for what turned out to be one of the highlights of the year. Coming home, were alumni, both young and old who came to enjoy a long standing school tradition. The band, Blue Sky, played many hit tunes, as well as some oldies, bringing back just a bit of nostalgia and made this year's Homecoming Dance one of the best in Warren's history.

1. Blue Sky lead guitarist introduces the next song. 2. Tammy Fisher finds date very attractive. 3. Tami Bennet, Kevin Olay, Noreen McCaughan, Kristie McKinnon, and Denny Leeds smile pretty for the camera. 4. Queen Lisa Lindsay and escort Steve Davis cut the cake while Brian Lumsden and Donna Spencer look on. 5. The last dance finds couples wishing it would never end. 6. Alumni Mike Samon, and pretty Rhonda Scott enjoy themselves at the dance. 7. As the lights dim, Blue Sky plays a romantic tune.

for Homecoming Dance

"Duck Season" October 28-November 1

1. Showing their usual spirit are members of the Senior class, the duck, Valerie Martinez, and the bear, Sally San Filippo. 2. "Do you have any last words?" say mascots Kerry Murray and Nancy Bauer to terrified Downey Duck Spy Steve Wilkinson. 3. Imitating Downey cheerleaders are Dan Murray, Tim Hayes, Marc Mullenix, Denny Leeds, Kevin Rysavy, and Brad Miller. 4. The beautiful smile of Karen Hansen.

Duck Season is the traditional week of rivalry between the Warren Bears and our cross-town rivals Downey High, which consisted of signs, teddy bears, duck hats, fun, and excitement for the whole community. On the last day of the week, the all school pep assembly was interrupted by two Warren students who found this enormously stupid looking duck spying on our school. The ugly duck was brought forth to the student body to be disposed of, but was mercifully let go to suffer the consequences of Downey's defeat by the Warren Bears.

A Week of Limes, Eggs, Oranges, and Busted Car Windows

1. Brad Miller confesses his sins to St Peter (Denny Leeds). 2. Blue and Gold balloons dot the sky. 3. Melinda Wyatt hands the mike over to Head Varsity Cheerleader, Lynn Iba. 4. Big Warren Stud breaks through Downey like paper.

Express Yourself on the 31st

"Monster Mash Day" was a smash! The day called for students dressing in every way imaginable (and unimaginable). Students who dressed up were called up to the platform to receive their prize, a stick of gum. Student Council held a clap vote for the best costume and though it was close, David Garza won. By all standings the costumes were unique and of course so were the students who wore them. The support of the Student Body helped make the day fun-filled and colorful.

1. Ann Rastutis, Karen Sanchez, and Robyn Rabens caught by the camera in their unique garb. 2. The Count (Randy Guynn) sneaks around the corner in search of a neck to bite. 3. Students clamor toward the platform so they can point fingers and remark at those on the stage. 4. David Garza poses shyly for the camera. 5. Though he didn't get as many claps, Brent Bailey dressed as Tarzan which got more whistles.

Teachers: not as tough as they seem

Basketball Varsity vs. Faculty

The opening game for the Varsity Basketball team was a "just for fun" game against the Faculty members. The game score 107-86, in favor of the Varsity team sounds like an average game, but it was not. Seeing respected faculty members fly through the air and land on their, we'll say backs, will be a memory the students won't soon forget.

1. "If all else fails, tickle!", are the thoughts and actions of Coach Price on Russ Winokur. 2. Coach Schmidt, Mr. Keller, Kevin Rysavy, and Mr. Hunt play Ring-Around-the-Rosie. 3. "When I was younger I could point my toe!" exclaims Coach Kiefer and Schmidt as Varsity players converge.

Turning Back

Students went all out in effort to turn the clocks backwards with the guys in black leather jackets, chains, sunglasses; and the girls in pony tails, bobby socks, and saddle shoes. You could hardly recognize people with their hair slicked back or in a real cool ponytail. The Rats were the gang of the day as they paraded the halls ready to rumble, followed by the hoots and hollers of students. The day was highlighted by a sock hop in the gym where a 50's style group, Crystal Ship performed and students shook a crazy leg.

the Hands of Time

1. Rats: Ron Kutzke and Joe Patton. 2. Sharon Smith, Roger Unice, and John Cooper signal "it's cool". 3. "Eh", says Gregg Kinney and Scott Strickland. 4. Alexis Holoboff, Val Miller, Patti Allen, Bill Reiman, Joyce Welch, and Chip Parmelly at the Hop. 5. Are you in this picture?

Spotlights Curtains Cameras

The theme of the Talent Show was "The Today Show", hosted by Danny Marson, Brad McMahan, and Doc Riemanson. Danny introduced the show with his usual ten minute monologue which was received with mixed feelings. Many fantastic and unusual talents were exhibited throughout the show: "Sparky and the Spazmatics", Geraldine, and many other talents. During acts, the crowd was entertained with commercial quips of hilarity from Danny, Doc, and Brad. It was an experience the students and faculty will not forget.

Next it's Broadway

1. The extremely limber Claylee Myers shows off her personality and pep in her Gypsy dance. 2. Danny Marson (Dan Murray) doing his monologue, which doesn't seem to be a hit by the expression on his face. 3. The gracious moves of Fernanda Castello was displayed in her Hawaiian dance. 4. You could have heard a pin drop when the very talented Ernie Centeno was singing a song he had written himself. 5. Andrew Sisters; Karen Bailey, Diana Moore, Karen Diess, and Teresa Watson doing a medley from the 40's.

Police Win Grudge Match

Members and friends of Warren High Faculty and Downey Police Department mixed to watch a different kind of sport in this years Interact sponsored Donkey Basketball Game. It was a grueling test for man and beast as the Warren Faculty versed the Police in attempting to stay on the animals and to score the most points. Playing tug-of-war with the donkeys and getting bruises were all part of this years exciting game which ended in a win for the Downey Police Department.

but Donkeys Win

in the end

1. Coach Randy Drake not doing too badly considering all the bucks and throws from his buddy. 2. Coach Dave Patterson, Detective Dennis Chelstrom and their partners. 3. Determination is shown on the face of Coach Phil Dunaway as he charges down the court for another basket. 4. Mr. Don Wright scrambles on his donkey for the get-away. 5. Coach Bob Speights demonstrates new riding techniques which requires a firm grip.

Sunday In New York

"Sunday In New York" was a romantic comedy which concerns Eileen Taylor who claims to be "the only 22 year old virgin left alive", and the wrestling with her conscience over today's modern morality. She arrives in her brother Allen's apartment in New York for a week's stay after her break up with her boyfriend Russ Wilson. Her brother tells her to hold onto her values. That afternoon she meets Mike Mitchell and after getting caught in the rain she brings him back to her brother's apartment where she proceeds to seduce him. In the meantime, Russ walks in, proposes to Eileen, and takes for granted Mike is Eileen's brother. In the confusing scenes, Eileen realizes she has fallen in love with Mike and as Mike says to Eileen at the end of the play, "I can tell you're the kind of girl who likes to marry the guy. I love you Eileen, remember that part. It's important".

1. In a cozy moment, Russ (Mike Patterson) whispers romantically to Eileen (Jeannie Crisp), "I'm crazy about you, you little monkey!". 2. "I'll bet you're puzzled!!?", states Mike (David Edwards) to Adam (Eric Boege) in the start of an explanation. 3. Adam remarks to group, "Yes, but I am an old fashioned brother!". 4. "And you'll be kissing his hair!", says Mike as he dances with Adam. 5. "I know you're the kind of girl who likes to marry the guy". A moment of fun after the show.

March to the Sound of different

The United States Marine Drum and Bugle Corp bestowed a great honor on Warren High when they delighted our student body with their fancy footwork and precision routines. Each year, only two schools in California are so honored. This Drum and Bugle Corp, along with the Silent Drill Team, are the President's own, and they have traveled internationally performing for amazed and privileged audiences. While the band played on, the talented drill team performed exercises using guns with bayonettes where exact timing and steady skill are required. All those who witnessed this great event, will retain that memory forever.

Hillbilly's Ho-Down

The annual "Sadie Hawkins Dance", sponsored by Letterwomen's Club was held Friday, March 14. The dance had the largest turn out ever, topped off by another first of two bands, "Crystal Ship" and "Shady Oak". Marryin' Sam (Wayne Wolfsburger) was kept very busy throughout the evening by the continuing fluctuations of eager couples. Contests were held for the Best Dressed Couple and King and Queen of Dogpatch were crowned. The outfits were both unusual and creative and the bands kept the dance hoppin'. Congratulations go to the Letterwomen's Club for giving the best Sadies ever.

1. "But why can't you marry all of us together!", begs Carolyn Griffiths, Cindy Nichols, Mike Mundia, and Mike Hoole to Marryin' Sam, Wayne Wolfsburger. 2. The winners of the Best Dressed Couple were Gayle Prokopp and Kevin Rysavy. 3. "Shady Oak" plays a movin' tune while the other band "Crystal Ship" takes a break. 4. A panoramic view of a lively bunch of hootin' hollerin' hillbillies. 5. The camera records the happy faces of Patti Allen, and her date Mike French. 6. Randy Guynn takes time out from his date Jill Mason to give the camera a knowing look.

Girls' League made the supreme effort of outward friendship by joining with Downey High in presenting the "Dating Game". Students from both schools crowded the Downey Theatre to see the unbelievable event. There was a pep talk from both announcers, and then the show began. There were four dating games, two with Downey guys, and two with Warren guys. Though the Warren girls were smiling, happiness in winning could only be measured after the date. Between dates there were commercials by a terrific comedy team who did a take-off on an old "Lone Ranger" radio routine and a couple of other hilarious skits. The sterling voice of MC Mike Coppenger accented the evening and helped to make the show a success.

Downey-Warren go on first date

1. Warren and Downey's victorious couples join in blowing a kiss to the audience. 2. Helene Olds forgets past rivalry after winning a date with Kris Kilpatrick. The other two contestants were Nikki Bartolic and Kerry Murray. 3. Bill Reiman the "Casanova" of Warren tries to decide which girl to make truly happy. 4. One of the many funny commercials of the program. 5. Whoever said Eric Hipple was shy? 6. Joe Saffren listens to witty answers from Warren Bachelorettes Nancy Bauer, Tami Bennett, and Noreen McCaughan.

The Four Clubs Unite for a

The annual Service Week was held in March. During this activity-packed week, members and advisors of the four service clubs planned and organized projects both on and off campus to better the school and community.

1. Between pepperoni pizza and punch, Sylvia Garcia and Jim Feunmayor carry on a friendly chat. 2. Cheryl Hammon and Jim Malmgram stop and pose for a quick snapshot. 3. Tangled bodies and a mad rush for shoes sparked the rousing progressive dinner held during Service Week. 4. Karen Brown, Nancy McCabe, Suzanne Spencer, Marilyn Guastella, and Pat White sit in amused anticipation for their number to be called. 5. Cynthia Sidewinder and Sammy Snake (alias Debbie Hypes and Jeff Worthy) find a place away from the crowds of a pizza party to enjoy their friends.

Week of Service and Excitement

1. Direct from the Islands, two friendly natives joined in the fun. 2. Kerry Murray and Nancy Bauer sing, dance, and shake those hats to entertain the kiddies. 3. Cathy Carlsen, in her announcer's get-up, takes charge of the evening. 4. The cheerful group, after a long day of service at Rancho.

Feeling shown through Mind of Dancer

Modern Dance was developed for girls at Warren to have a better understanding and actual experience of modern dancing. The girls form together in groups to choreograph the dances to fit their music, whether it be flowing arms and legs to subtle music or lunges and kicks to the hard rock beat, each is unique in its own way. Modern Dance teaches people to transmit by dancing their feelings to the audience. Besides setting up a show for Open House, each year the Dance Department puts on a Dance Show, under the direction of Miss Sally Carmen. Money made off of this effort is used to buy new dance equipment for the classes. This year the girls have proven to be a valuable asset.

1. Judy Chlarson and Carolyn Ingwersen display a dynamic position-Carolyn you have a run in your tights. 2. Suki executing a Pelvic Lift. 3. Tina Bell and Suki Hutton attempting one of the more difficult positions of modern dance.

ATHLETICS ATHLETICS

ATHLETICS

When the offensive quarterback barks out his signals and the final hike is uttered, the two opposing teams clash as two rams in battle.

The milers are poised at the starting line, the gun sounds and they start out as gracefully as finely trained thoroughbreds out of the starting gate.

The whistle sounds and the wrestlers start in as two wild cats fighting over a catch.

Following the instincts of nature, athletes fight to be number one.

1. #88, John Barnhart struggles for even more yardage against Excelsior after making one of many completions. 2. Dancing Naro Negrete leaves Duck defenders in their stances as Duncan Barber lays down a block in the bitter cross-town rivalry won easily by the Bears. 3. A blurr of speed by Eric Hipple. 4. Clark Wilmoth's antics give quarterback Eric Hipple sufficient protection in the backfield. 5. Eric Hipple and Clark Wilmoth in action as two of Warren's strongest offensive players.

For the third time in Warren's history, our Varsity Football team went to the CIF finals out of a three way tie for second with Lynwood and Downey.

Warren's strong running offense is headed by Captain Eric Hipple, Quarterback, who rushed 562 yards for 12 touchdowns along with Duncan Barber rushing for 581 yards and 5 touch downs. Clark Wilmoth was second in scoring for the team with 6 touchdowns. Even though his effort did not place him high scorer on the team, a great percentage of Duncan Barber's yardage put the team in scoring position.

Even though individuals stand out as great, team work stands out as the force that really produces a winning team.

Sophomores take S.G.V.L. by surprise

The future of Warren's football team looks better for the next year than it has ever looked before. To see this you only have to look at this year's sophomore team. This team showed the true Warren spirit, for after losing their non-league games, these first year Bears came back to finish as the undefeated league champs.

The closest these Bears came to losing was against Paramount when the score was 0-0 in the fourth quarter and Paramount scored for six points. With twenty-one seconds left the sophomores scored a touchdown and an extra point to win the game 7-6. Two weeks later these first year Bears showed the Downey Ducks that you don't rowdy around with Bears no matter how young.

1. Stan Davis gives Lynwood a run for their money. 2. Jim Fuenmayor and Jim DiCarlo start the first motions of running back a kick-off. 3. Scott Vernoy halts the Bellflower drive with another one of his interceptions. 4. When the offensive quarterback barks out his signal, the final hike is uttered, and the opposing lines clash as two rams in battle.

Outstanding results from a first year try

Not only was Coach Richardson new to the school, but also to the Freshmen Football team. This first year team came in fifth in league play with shutouts against LaMirada and Bellflower.

Even though these young bears placed fifth in the league they were the second highest scoring and had the second best defense in their league.

Volleyball and Tennis:

Many hours of hard work were put in by the volleyball teams. Backed up by the coaching and inspiration of the coaches: Miss Cairns (Varsity Volleyball) and Mrs. Roche (Junior Varsity Volleyball), the teams practiced to develop coordination and teamwork. Although the teams did not place high in the League, their devotion and hard work placed them among the top athletes. Top players were: (Varsity) Carla Moeller, Most Valuable Player; Margaret Fitzsimmons, Most Improved Player; (Junior Varsity) Karen Garvey, Most Valuable Player, and Renee Binette, "Go Getter."

1. Captain Madalyn Shabla demonstrates the skill of a true leader. 2. Gail Patin warms up for another game. 3. Diane Garvey shows why she was the second highest scorer on the Varsity team. 4. Wendy York and Lisa Lewis show good volleying position against their Bellflower opponents. 5. Carolyn Griffiths psyches herself up for the next match. 6. Alice Bannister stretches to serve the ball with good spin. 7. Marla Sheehan puts forth her best effort to return an opponents wide shot.

Winning and losing are close companions

The Girls Varsity Tennis Team coached by our Miss Carman, fought their way to a third place position in the newly organized C.I.F. League. Losing their first two matches against the strong teams of Bellflower and La Mirada, they came back in the true tradition of Warren High to win seven out of eight matches. Led by the Most Valuable Players: Marla Sheehan, a Junior, with a record of nine wins and two losses; and Eric Hirsch, a Sophomore, with eight wins and one loss, insures a strong team for next season. Helen Medeiros, was voted Most Inspirational and awarded the "Sparkplug" trophy at the joint Volleyball/Tennis Awards Banquet held on November 21st. The team captain was Carolyn Griffiths and Nicky Bartolic was manager. We are proud of these Bears who have worked hard and done great!

The Junior Varsity Tennis Team earned a third place position in C.I.F. League standings with a record of seven wins and five losses. Losing the first two matches, the J.V.'s rallied back to win seven out of the remaining ten matches. Outstanding players: number one singles, Jane Sevier, a Senior, with a nine wins and two losses record, who was also unanimously voted Most Valuable Player; number one doubles Dana Kriskovic and Sylvia Garcia, both Juniors, with a nine wins and one loss record, with Sylvia Garcia voted The Most Improved Player. Our J.V.'s worked hard at after school practices behind the coaching of Miss Eisenberg. The captain was Colleen McPhearson and the manager was Nicky Bartolic. We have great hopes for the J.V. team because today's J.V.'s are tomorrow's Varsity!

7

Because of two teams dropping from the league, the S.G.V.L. Waterpolo season was eliminated from the calendar, so our poloists went free lance for a season. As a result the team played a larger variety of teams from higher ranked schools. These schools were up there with Downey's No. 1 polo team.

Poloists take a dive at freelance competition

1. Paul Van Ryn takes his position on the wing awaiting a pass. 2. The sprint, as demonstrated by Clay Anderson, takes the strength that is built up from many hours of practice. 3. Taking off in the sprint for the start of a game are Chip Parmely, Bob Vetter, and Clay Anderson. 4. Bob Vetter takes a shot against Whittier. 5. Bruce Clumpner blocks an important goal in over time against Monta Vista.

Sophomore, Kutzke, takes first in league

The year that was to be a building year, because a number of the team graduated, turned out to be a year of great success, with the Varsity taking second in league. The reason for this, according to Coach Kiefer, was the development of the returning runners and the new Sophomores and Freshman, like Ron Kutzke who finished first in league finals with a two mile time of 9 minutes and 51 seconds.

The JV's took their second championship in a row when they tied for first with Bellflower. Dan DeLaCruz led the JV's to their championship by finishing first in league finals.

Next year promises to be one of the best yet with this years JV's taking first and only three runners graduating.

Long hot summers all seem worth it

1. Randy Guynn has a running style all his own. 2. Ron Kutzke's determination is written on his face as he enters the last 10 yards of his 9.51 2 mile that won the league's first place position. 3 & 4. The faces of Earl Medlin and Mario Bohnert tell a story of the many hours of summer workouts coming to the test. 5. The milers are poised at the starting line, the gun sounds, and they start out as Quarterhorses out of a starting gate. 4. Jerry Ozman shows the stride that makes him Most Inspirational Runner.

Mighty Bears Upset Lynwood

1. As the Paramount Pirate team stands in dismay, senior guard Terry Beattie battles for a three point play under the basket. 2. Bear fans are often confronted with this sky high view of their basketball team in action. 3. All-league center Bob Howard makes this play look easy as he scores a lay-up between two Paramount defenders. 4. Jim Klunder, a junior, goes up high to block a Pirate shot in the opening play of the game. 5. Marc Mullenix passes to the open man in this patterned play of the Bears. 6. Alan "Zeke" Pemberton dribbles past his Paramount opponent on his way for an easy two in a crucial home game.

While Spirit Kept Alive in '75

The 1974-75 Varsity Basketball team had a truly bouncing season. Injuries and illness cost the team some victories. Highlights of the season were a thrilling two point loss to Downey in the last second at Cerritos, dual sweeping victories over Norwalk and Bellflower, and a vital team effort throughout the game to defeat previously undefeated Lynwood. The Lynwood win was a spark in a fighting season for the Bears. As stated by Coach Young "I really liked the adversity we showed in that game. We never gave up. It was truly a team effort." In preleague play the Bears placed 3rd in the Huntington Beach tourney, defeating highly ranked Edison and Huntington Beach. Seniors Bob Howard, Terry Beattie, Mark Mullenix, and Alan Pemberton were outstanding for the Bears, while Juniors Jim Klunder, Brian Lumsden, and Jeff Korbett bring great hopes for next years team, one that will truly be full of expectations. The remainder of the team including Doug Scott, Kevin Olay, Gary Vedenoff, Russ Winokur, and Kevin Rysavy helped put forth traditional team effort for the Bears.

Jay Vees Untouched in League

The Warren JV's finished the season with a 24 win, 2 loss overall record. The losses were by one point, 43 to 42 to Mayfair and 48 to 47 to Huntington Beach. In league the young Bears finished with a perfect record; 14 wins, 0 losses, and San Gabriel League Champions. They won their last 15 games in a row. Over the year they won the Warren JV Classic, Consolation Champions Huntington Beach Tournament, and 2nd place Mayfair Classic. Their record and play established them as the best JV Team in Warren's history.

Defense and hustle were the key for the young bears. Their full control pressure and running game was displayed as they rolled over opponent after opponent. Mark Mullane, the only super sophomore, averaged 17 points a game to lead the Bears. Mark is a future great. Marty Meador and Gordie Berg are two of the same kind with quick hands and a tough defense. Marty broke the JV assist record per game and season. Berg broke the steal record. Chris Carter and Chris Marsh, the other 2 starters tough defensive players, are both much improved. Marsh has potential as a tremendous jumper and hook shot man.

To go along with this, the young Bears had a strong, quick bench in Howard "Flash" McWilliams, John Howard, Bill Neushaffer, Jack Pelton, Dave Prange, and Gary Haynes.

In summary, the team's success resulted from excellent shot range and movement to basket, good poise and drive, superior pressure defense with excellent hustle, and never giving up on themselves.

Sophomores literally sweep through League, bringing second S.G.V.L. championship to their class

Frosh finish 3rd

Dedication is the reason for such a winning Sophomore team. Every member is important because no first stringer is any tougher than his practice mate. This dedication brought the Sophs an 8 and 5 pre-league record with such showings as 3rd place in the Millikan Tournament with Gerry "Jolly" McCarthy and Alex Radetzky being all-tourney and the consolation championship in the B.G. J.V. Tournament with Scott Vernoy being selected All-Tourney.

The Bears soon enough showed the S.G.V.L. what Warren was made of. Warren swept through its games during the season with only one stop a 52-48 loss to Paramount but soon after Warren came back to trounce the Pirates 64-49 in the re-match. Highlights were sound thrashings of the Ducks and the high game of 102-42 against Bellflower. The Bears were led by M.V.P. Gerry McCarthy. Co-Captains were Jim Uranga, Frank Watson, and Scott Vernoy. Vernoy and Alex Radetzky being only freshman, give Warren much hope in the remaining years. Helping out in the backcourt were Mark McClure, Mark Guastella, and Brad Hinds. The players that didn't see as much action would have easily started for any other team in the league. This has been the second league championship for the sophomore class, one that brings a bright light to Warren athletics.

The Sophs season record was 21 wins and 4 losses and a league record of 13 wins and 1 loss. The Sophs were a strong team scoring 1601 points to their opponents 1094 which gives the team an average of 64 points per game to the opponents 44. The team has lead in offense by Jerry McCarthy who scored 393 season points for a 15.7 point per game average, followed by Alex Radetzky with 323 season points for a 12.9 point per game average. Scott Vernoy was third in scoring with an average of 10.7 points per game and lead the team in total rebounding. Jim Uranga was fourth in scoring with 9 points per game and was second in total rebounding.

Freshman Basketball was one of the newest sports at Warren. These mighty Bears went along with tradition fighting and scraping for every game and coming up with a third place showing in league. Coach Wayne Wolfsburger's team was led by Dennis Gjesdal, Jim Eubanks, Jerry Hooton, Robert DeSchepper, Steven Gifferd, and Dennis Barker. Others included Roy Cain, Brad Ditto, Bob Miller, and Kyle Rysavy.

Tough League

This years Wrestling team did a fine job and the Varsity Squad wrapped up the season with a 4-3 record. With six returning letterman, four of which were injured on and off during the season, the Bear Grapplers are in a building year. Coaches Cunningham and Dunaway commended returning Captain Duncan Barber, 135 lbs., as he placed 2nd in two tournaments. Ron Warren at 145 lbs., 16-2 record, also led Warren to many victories and a place winner at 2 tournaments. Mark Taylor, Naro Negrete, Rudy Herrera, Mark English, Dwane Henry, Jeff McCaughan, Dana Skeggs, Cary Midtbo and Steve Mahr also did a fine job.

The JV squad, record 6-1 are Co-Champions of the San Gabriel League and some outstanding members will be returning. Sophomore Bob Johnson, Freshman Lance Davenport and Junior Bart Kriek were undefeated in league. Many other fine wrestlers, Mel Ready, Dave Campbell, Guy Huft and John St. Germain along with the whole squad should do a tremendous job in the future. The whole squad is responsible for the championship and all should be commended.

Proves Bear Ability

1. Jeff McCaughan is on his way to dumping his opponent with a "navy ride". 2. Heavyweight Mark English throws his Excelsior foe to the mat in preparation for a stack. 3. Ron Warren prys his man over in a Gibbony in attempt to ready him for a fall. 4. All S.G.V.L. Wrestler, Duncan Barber, prevents himself from being thrown as the signal for off the mat is called. 5. Cary Midtbo tries his best to keep his opponent from pinning him.

Defending League Champs make good showing

Leadership and determination are qualities not only of a good coach but also of his players. These are the qualities that Coach Kiefer instills in his team of winning cindermen. The Varsity is very strong with many returning lettermen from the first place team of the S.G.V.L., Hopeful to obtain first place this year. On Thursday, April 3, Senior Jeff Clingan broke his own school triple jump record of 45'1" with a tremendous effort of 47' 1/4". This is one of the highest if not the highest marks in CIF history.

1. David Prange attempts the long jump. 2. Jerry Ozmon heads the pack in the Varsity 880. 3. Mike French attempts to break his own record for the shotput. 4. Trodding to a flashy finish, Jerry Ozmon. 5. Wes Miller stretches into the lead. 6. Jon Hand demonstrates a good flop form.

A Slow Start to a Good Finish

The Best Season Yet

1. Paul Van Ryan demonstrates his perfect Varsity form. 2. Mark Allen concentrates before the gun. 3. Bill Reiman proved to be a strong league contender in the butterfly. 4. Brent Clumpner demonstrates the proper position for a quick get-away. 5. Bill Reiman moves on.

The Swim Team experienced its best season in Warren's history. With many returning lettermen, the team not only had talent but experience. Its strongest point was the CIF ranked relay team. With determination and personal effort, the team proved to be one of Warren's best.

Frosh-Soph are full of surprises

Girls Have a Strong Second Try

The Girls' Athletics Program is just getting into its second year of C.I.F. competition. In its second year, the Varsity Girls' Softball Team went on the win league and enter CIF. The softball teams are coached by Miss Carmen. She is a strong-minded and hard-working coach who devotes much of her own time and effort to work with these girls who haven't had much experience in organized sports.

Although they work as hard, the basketball teams have not had the luck that the softball teams has had. These hard working girls are led by the two new additions to the girls coaching staff, Mrs. Roache and Miss Cairns.

1. Karen Biedenbach takes a free throw. 2. A strong hitter takes a good swing. 3. A tip off always starts off the game. 4. Joanne Villa dribbles down the court. 5. Catcher covers home plate. 6. A good second baseman always has her base covered.

Playing Hard is not just for guys

Sometimes it's like trying to hit air

Long hours of practice were put into making the young inexperienced Varsity Bears the best team possible. Although they were not defending a title in the league, they may have surprised some people.

Working together as a team, their strongest point was their seven-man pitching staff with four returning lettermen. Although the offense was weak in hitting power, the strength of the defense should have carried them through.

1. Troy Hite hurtles one of his fast-balls to astound another baffled batter. 2. Dan McMillan shows the ability of the top hitter in the league. 3. A J.V. runner slides into second a little to late. 4. J.V. pitcher Tom Currie stretches for that last bit of speed.

Tennis: A Game of the Mind

The experience of the Varsity Tennis team just may have been one of its strong points. Coach Wayne Wolfsberger is new to the team this year and striving for a strong and resourceful Varsity squad that can win the match mentally before the first serve.

1. Doubles is a game of working together and being able to depend on yourself when the going gets rough 2. Jim Beull volleys for match points. 3. Let's hope they lowered the net. 4. Frank Otto goes back for a long shot.

Volleyball:

1. A proper spike set by Maggie Ford brings a good product from Dave Linheart. 2. Victor Cervantez plummets the Volleyball to the back court. 3. Victor's strong serves are essential to the team. 4. Another good set by Maggie Ford, this time to Robert Kelsh. 5. Maggie's good timing beats Dave Linheart to the spike block.

It is rougher than you think

With the second year of any sport comes more interest by spectators and more experience of players and coaches. Coach Tom Stoner, a new Art teacher here at Warren, with a lot of enthusiasm and guts, took the nucleus of last year's team along with inexperienced new team members and made Volleyball one of the more popular non-league sports.

The Sport of Concentration and Accuracy

The golf team, swinging away on the golf course, was under the direction of Coach Speights. Though most of the sports at Warren are team oriented, golf is one of the few sports that relies solely on the individual for its success. The team aspect of golf is shown in the encouragement and positivity given by the teammates to each other. Being a strong team in the league for the past three years, one more certainly won't hurt.

1. Ray Dunn tees off as Warren's #1 golfer. 2. Mike Weyrick attempts a putt, did he or didn't he make it? 3. Ed Weatherford is stuck in the sand trap again. 4. The tee, of course, starts it all off.

Concentration is the name

SENIOR SENIORS

SENIORS

A Senior's last year in high school may very well be the most important year in his life. Questions such as do I go to college, which college, do I work full time, or do I take off, fill Senior's minds the entire year.

In spite of all the questions, decisions, and panic, Seniors seem to have found moments for leisure. Some of the activities that Senior's participated in were repairing dented cars (as a result of our rivalries), celebration week, and leading the underclassman at pep assemblies.

Seniors now accepted as adults have learned to express themselves as people. Each person had the chance to express their individuality by responding to the following questions: birthplace, ambitions, and favorite saying or quote that means something to them. Their answers appear under their pictures.

"Class Couple," Tina Bell and Greg Webb, show that Love is . . . . ."

Life, so they say, is but a game
and they let it slip away.
Love, like the Autumn sun, should be dying but it's only just begun.

Like the twilight on the road up ahead, they don't see just where they're going, and all the secrets in the universe, whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.

We may never pass this way again.

I want to laugh while the laughing is easy, I want to cry if it makes it worth while. I may never pass
this way again, that's why
I want it with you.

Cause you make me feel like
I'm more than a friend, like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end. I may never pass this way again, that's why I want it with you.

Dreams, so they say, are for the fools and they let them drift away. Peace, like the silent dove, should be flying but it's only just begun.

Like Columbus in the olden days,
We must gather all our courage, sail
our ships out on the open sea, cast away our fears and all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.
We may never pass this way again.

HONORED BEARS

This next section of the El Orosio is dedicated to those students who put forth extra effort to make Warren High a proud school. We have included the most outstanding students in each department, along with local and top scholarships given to seniors. In addition, awards and honors in the fields of sports, art, and business have been added. The students throughout their schooling at Warren are recognized as honest believers, ready to make something of their lives. Students working in divided areas together, become the HONORED BEARS of Warren High.

Some Branch Outside of School to test Their Know-How

Four of our Seniors achieved semifinalist status in the NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM. Receiving high scores on the P.S.A.T. (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test) as Juniors, they were eligible to compete on the semi-finalist level. In order to go on in competition, their results on the S.A.T. must be subsequently high. The National Merit Scholarship is the largest independently financed scholarship program for undergraduates, thus enabling many to attend the college they choose. The semi-finalists are Elaine Ferris, Dave Garza, Wes Miller, and Karen Hansen.

THE BRAIN TRUST team is three students, one from each grade, who excel in the areas of math and science. Together they meet with arranged schools in an effort to capture the first place trophy. Last year, against Millikan High, Warren won the trophy for the third consecutive time, and in this year's preliminary competition, Warren ranked first with an impressive margin over second place Brethern. The Brain Trust team is Senior, Dave Garza; Junior, Julie Boyd; and Sophomore, Roger Wixtrom.

BANK OF AMERICA AWARDS are presented each year to high school Seniors with qualities of leadership, scholarship, and the promise of future success. Winners in specific fields were awarded certificates for their achievements. The Bank of America Award Winners are: Janice O'Donnell (Mathematics), Edward Smith (Science), Elaine Ferris (English), Wes Miller (Social Studies), Della Mouck (Foreign Language), Jannie Crisp (Drama), Judy Smith (Music), Judi Chlarson (Art), Sandy Zrelak (Home Economics), Danette Lueke (Business), and Dale Barrett (Trades & Industry).

THE OUTSTANDING TEENAGERS, who are nominated by their school principal, are chosen for excellence in academic achievement and community service. The awards are presented each Spring and the biographies of all the honored bears are recorded in the annual volume, "Outstanding Teenagers of America." From there, both regional and national scholarships will be awarded to selected winners. The Outstanding Teenagers of America from Warren are Frank Otto, Debbie Hypes, Lynn Iba, Wes Miller, Dave Morse, Scott Pinsky, Maggie Ford, and Jan Klunder.

THE ADVISORY COUNCIL is a group of students, representing each grade, who make up a council to meet with the Board of Education, acting as the go-between amongst the student body and the Board. The council meets regularly to discuss important matters. Tami Bennett heads this committee, and is also our Delegate to the State Advisory Board of Education. Members of the Advisory Council are Laureen Abajian, Jody Overfelt, Dave Garza, Theresa Rodgers, Scott Pinsky, and Tami Bennett.

TOP PLAQUE WINNERS, also chosen by the Bank of America, receive plaques in four major categories for outstanding leadership and qualities. In May, winners compete for $250. scholarships, and top winners in the categories overall win $1000. scholarships. Top Plaque Winners are: David Garza (Science and Math), Karen Hansen (Liberal Arts), Kathy Breaux (Fine Arts), and Kathy McGlasson (Vocational Arts).

OCTOBER'S KERRY

Kerry Murray, more commonly known as "Kerry Bear", was selected not only for her various school community activities, but also for her vibrant personality and qualities which make her something special. Her interests range from school mascot to Les Fideles President, while spending time in Modern Dance Club, College Club, and as a Girls' League Representative. Kerry is a Seabearer, and involves herself with Student Government, holding the office of Senior Representative. Outside school, she is Warren's representative to the American Heart Association. She is currently employed at the Broadway Dept. Store. As one of the school mascots, she received the "Super Mascot" trophy at 1974 NCA Santa Barbara Mascot Camp, showing her true BEAR PRIDE. Her dream for life is to own a Datsun 260-Z and pursue a profession in the medical field.

JANUARY'S CAROL

Carol Ley is an exciting and happy girl, always ready to grab some of the action. Her many activities range from Girls' League Second Semester President to Les Fideles Sunshine Chairman. She has also held membership in CSF, College Club, and participated in the annual spring Powder Puff Football Game. Carol's favorite sport of tennis is shown by her participation in CIF, both girls' and boys' tennis teams. She was awarded "Most Valuable Player" for CIF Varsity in her Junior Year. Carol has served on the WASC Committee, as well as done volunteer work for Rancho and Cancer Society. She is active in the community as a member of Las Chicas Assisteens, as well as the Junior Tennis Club of Downey, holding various offices. She served on second semester Student Council, busily planning for Senior Activities.

KERRY MURRAY

NOVEMBER'S LYNN

Lynn Iba is recognized around school as the head Varsity Cheerleader this year. But that's not all that takes her time. She is also a member of Les Devouees, CSF, German Club and first semester Girls' League President, thus representing them on Student Council. She has been active on Pep Squad Cheer all her three years at Warren. Out of school, Lynn is on the Educational Planning Team for the Downey School District, and does volunteer work for Rancho, and the Heart Association. She is currently employed at the Broadway Dept. Store, also participating on the Broadway Youth Council. Lynn was also selected as one of the Outstanding Teenagers of America.

DIANE BIRNIE

DECEMBER'S DIANE

As a Warren Songleader, Diane Birnie has achieved membership in five on campus clubs, including College Club, CSF, Les Fideles, Modern Dance Club, and Girls' League. Her enthusiasm stays with her as she volunteers in the community with Las Chicas, Girl Scouts, and has given over 209 hours to the American Cancer Society. As a result of her volunteering spirit, she has received the Grace Spacher Community Service Award. She spends her summers with her family in a house on Balboa Island where she shares more friendships throughout the days.

Girls' League Honors those Special Girls, with just that Something Extra

NANCY BAUER

APRIL'S NANCY

Nancy "Pooh Bear" Bauer is a girl full of distinctive qualities not often found in the average high school student. She is always willing to give her time where it is needed. As this year's El Orosio Editor, she has shown her ability to organize and lead her fellow students. She is a member of Les Devouees and served as first semester President. Her enthusiasm of school has traveled from the yearbook room to the football field where she has enjoyed being one of the prideful Warren Mascots. In addition to these activities, she is a member of Modern Dance Club, College Club, and CSF. When not taking pictures or mascotting, Nancy is usually found at the Bank of America or Ingmar's Deli., where she holds part time jobs. Her community activities include volunteer work for Rancho, the Heart Association, and the Rio Hondo Boys' Club. She plans to use her experience in publications to achieve a career in Journalism.

NICKY BARTOLIC

MARCH'S NICKY

Nicky Bartolic is a busy girl with activities and services stretching out and out. She was chosen friendliest girl of her Junior class and was a Homecoming Princess in her Senior year. Nicky is a member of Les Fideles and has been active on Student Council. Her volunteer work outside of school ranges from Rancho to Heart Association and Cancer Society. She has played and lettered in Girls' CIF JV Tennis and Basketball, and Varsity Baseball. She was voted "Most Valuable Player" on JV Basketball. Nicky is in a Tamburitza Orchestra at Saint Anthony's Church and teaches catechism there on Sunday mornings.

FEBRUARY'S TAMERA

Tamera Rodgers has a wide range of school interests. She is an active member of Les Fideles, and has served on Student Council all three years at Warren. She holds membership in Modern Dance Club, German Club, College Club, Young Life, and is a Girls' League Representative. She served on the WASC committee as well as the Powder Puff Football Team. Outside school she is a volunteer for Rancho, Heart Association, and Cancer Society. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and sings in the choir. She has received an Outstanding Community and school service award from the PTA. In her spare time and for a part time job, Tamera is a seamstress, something she also does expertly.

MAY'S MAGGIE

Maggie Ford, as a member of the Flag Squad, twirls the blue and gold of Warren, showing her true spirit. She has served on Student Council all through Warren and is a Girls' League Representative. She has been a member of CSF, Girls' CIF Volleyball (Most Inspirational Player), and Basketball (Most Valuable Player). Her community activities include giving swimming lessons for retarded children, as well as a volunteer activity leader for EH children during the summer. The PTA has recognized Maggie for her community service to others. She works during the summer as a lifeguard and has been chosen as one of the Outstanding Teenagers of America.

Then Our Camera Caught Sight of Melba

MELBA IS . . .

A pink carnation in January, a sweet smelling sunny morning in August, a clown's smile from ear to ear, a triple ice cream cone, a child's honest kiss, a warm soft pillow, a chilling splash of mother ocean, a Snickers, a tubular wave with frosty white foam spraying with old man "offshore wind", a busy telephone, a soft fuzzy kitten, an open heart, a peaceful sheep, an active day, a sleeping beauty, an organic meal, a raspberry smoothie, a taco in Cardiff, a black Carmenghia, a V.W. bus, a camera film waster, a black and white and red wet suit, a cheeseburger and banana cream pie at Marie Calendar's, a smack at school, a warm puppy, love at first sight, a long blonde haired local (boy), an experience, a piece of trident gum, a stop at Jack In The Box, a dance at Golden West, a date with Mike Purpose, a honk freak, a tapestry cloth, a pair of thongs, a muslin dress, a hairy leg, a stop at "Jean's Euphoria", a ticket to the Beach Boys, a child of God, a two-inch fingernail, a plate at Sizzlers, a beautiful blonde, a henpecking wife with mudpack and a head full of curlers, a Wayne Brown surfboard, a crystal-green plant, a turquoise ring, a rabbit, a surfer, a styler, a bum, a prude, a cool summer breeze, a day at the beach, and a night out of town, . . . but most of all, MELBA is the most important, and the most beautiful person in my life!

thank you God

and oh was she Something!

Miss El Oroso

Melba Samford

Melba Samford was chosen as Miss El Oroso on the basis of photogenic quality of her Senior portrait. She seems to have that special way of putting her personality into a picture. She is a friendly, beautiful person who enjoys smiling on life. Unaware of her award, Melba was photographed and a letter from her "bestus friend" lets you know just what she's like.

DER CLASSMIENUNDE

UNDERCLASSMEN

Underclassmen: the very word denotes bedlam. Juniors, who proved themselves an integral part of school activities, poured boundless energies into school spirit as well as academic work. Transition was the key word for the sophomores and freshmen. Jumping from junior to senior high, from oldest to youngest, from structured and organized scheduling to confusion, required strength and unity. But somehow everyone came through the initiation with a broader scope of understanding.

CLUBS

Clubs are a very important part of high school life. Formal class education is important, but through social activities, students are given the opportunity to meet other students in a relaxed, informal atmosphere. Social life is a very important part of learning, not the same as learning Math, but learning to do things as a combined effort. With more than 30 clubs on campus, there should be something of interest for almost everyone. Each student should be able to pick a club with his or her interest in mind.

Interact Club is a service club that dedicates themselves to helping the community, whether it be by washing cars, planting trees or singing Christmas carols in a convalescent home. Some of the Interact activities this year were the Donkey Basketball game, a car rally, and helping at the Downey Theater. Interact is sponsored by the mens Rotary Club of Downey. The three sponsors of Interact are: Gary Orsinger, Bob Spights, and Gary Hunter.

On campus or off, Les Devouees is a club serving both the school and community, as well as raising money to meet the cost of social events. Throughout the year, Devouee members do volunteer work for Rancho Los Amigos Hospital and the Heart Association, along with making money from their enchilada sale. Money was spent on a Christmas dance, weekends in the snow and two scholarships awarded to outstanding senior members. Weekly meetings make decisions, which, when carried out by the members, keep Les Devouees efficient and outgoing, always ready to serve. The sponsor of Les Devouees is Carol Lords.

Service Unites Clubs

1. Interact members: John Barnhart, Jim Buell, Jeff Clingan, Mike Daum, Richard Dillman, Ray Dunn, Bernie Gabel, Mark Griffin, Denny Leeds, Mark Lohman, Jim Malmgren, Jeff McCaughan, Kevin McHugh, David Morse (first semester president), Frank Otto, Chip Parmelly, Bill Reimann, Ray Vartanian, Laird Waddell, Jeff Worthy, Mike Mattes, Mike Lopez, Wyatt Black, Paul Brandau, Chris Carter (second semester president), Bob Robertson, Steve Ruckman, Scott Strickland, David Tseklenis, Ed Weatherford, Jim Fuenmayor, Cory Normura, Ron Irvin, Mark Allen, Ron Kutzke. 2. Dave Morse, Interact First Semester president. 3. Nancy Bauer, Les Devouees First Semester president. 4. Karen Hansen, Les Devouees Second Semester president. 5. Chris Carter, Interact Second Semester president. 6. Les Devouees members: Arlene Starkey, Patty Schneid, Rose Sapia, Carrie Stallcup, Noreen McCaughen, Irene Mazzi, Theresa Knight, Lori Ross, Joan Long, Kathie McGlauson, Sherrie Horany, Gayle Sobul, Barbie Weiser, Nancy McCabe, Janet Jones, Nancy Bauer (first semester president), Karen Brown, Laureen Abajian, Linda Keays, Debbie Hypes, Lynn Iba, Elaine Ferris, Danette Leuke, Karen Hansen (second semester president).

When you say Key Club and Fideles,

Last year, Warren's Key Club received the highest award given to an individual club - 1st place, Gold Achievement - at Key Club's International Convention in Chicago. Showing no signs of letting up, they were awarded the second place trophy last summer at the district convention in San Diego, and continue to enjoy the leadership role in the state. Warren's Key Club participates in a great number of various events and service endeavors from tree-planting to work with the elderly, and charity collection to the decoration of the Downey Rose Float. The Sponsor of Key Club is Wayne Johnson.

Les Fideles is a prime example of an on campus service club. The main purpose of the club is to provide and promote voluntary service to the school and the community. Throughout the year the members maintain steady participation in three local voluntary bureaus and a convalescent home. In addition to these services a sponsorship has been taken on by the club of a young Brazilian boy. Social events find Les Fideles members at Christmas dances or pizza parties or even carousing around neighborhood streets caroling tunes. When the treasury is low casual bake sales are held to boost the financial status back to normal. All in all, Les Fideles has emerged this as an enjoyable and fulfilling service club. The sponsor of Les Fidelis is Edy Hastings.

You've said it all

1. Gary Vedenoff Key Club President. 2. Jim Buell and first semester Les Fideles President, Laura Agosta.

Around the World

A new club on campus this year is the Latin Image. It was formed because Mexican students at the school wanted something to do and show that they are also proud of Warren. In their meetings they discuss many racial problems and differences and have conquered many of these hurdles. Sponsors for this club are Rebecca Saffell, Catherine Fraser, Mike Coppenger and Ron Rothery.

The German Club sponsored by Mr. Hunt, has helped its members achieve better insight into the German language and culture by attending a variety of German films. To their delight, the German Club members also organized a snow trip to Blue Jay, a Christmas party, a banquet, and a beach party.

The purpose of French Club is to further the interest in this ancient European language. They also study the cultures and customs of France. Some of the many activities include attending a theatrical production of Joan of Arc at the Music Center, a Christmas breakfast "the old French way," and a dinner at an exquisite French restaurant.

The European Travel Club is composed of past and future Foreign study league travellers to Europe. The purpose is for past travellers to orient future travellers. Money is raised for a scholarship fund to send students to Europe. There are also gatherings to show slides and reminisce over their travels.

The Spanish Club is for any student enrolled in the Spanish classes and also is open to any student in Warren who is interested in the Spanish language and/or Spanish speaking countries. Students from foreign countries are invited to speak. An annual activity has been a "Friendship Dinner" where students from foreign countries, enrolled at Warren, are special guests. Service projects consist of contributions of clothes, food and school supplies to an orphanage in Tecate, a school in Mazatlan Mexico.

A Mixture of Talents

The aim of this club is to congregate all students who share an interest in the theatre. They attend professional plays such as GREASE. The thespians also work on money making projects such as their thirty-six hour impromptu marathon which earned the club $1,400. The Thespians are under the expert direction of Mrs. McMillian who has done an excellent job this year.

Art Club takes up where other classes leave off. Members get first hand experience in commercial art, art crafts and free hand drawing. The club took a field trip to the Renaissance fair and they helped set up the Stonewood Art Show. Also during open house they set up displays and did demonstrations.

The aim of Audio Visual is to further the knowledge of audio equipment. The club travels to different exhibitions to view the many types of the communication field. Much valuable experience is gained by being in this club.

The aim of the Photography Club is to further know and understand the various aspects of photography by actual "exposure." Some of the different processes are, black and white film processing, printing color slides and for advanced students, special effects are employed in the program.

Search or Research

Shakespeare Club is a club designed to improve the understanding of students who are interested in this great European author. They see his work through the theatre and different visual aids. Many trips have been taken to plays. All in all, this past year has proven to be a great learning experience for all.

The sole objective of the Math Club is to broaden the students knowledge of their total mathematical surroundings. They attend various demonstrations and math field days. All are eager to learn all they can about this interesting subject.

The members of Mortar and Pestle are made up of a group of labbies, whose duty it is to further the interests in Chemistry. Their main activity is publishing the "Thistle Tube," a newspaper which is available to any chemistry student. The club takes field trips and is valuable to many a chemistry student.

The Library Club's main objective is to assist the Librarian. In the course of their duty, they are exposed to the organization of the library. This knowledge of the way the library is run could help in future years in the event that one of these assistants have a management opportunity. They have certainly helped speed up the library process considerably.

The Chess Club is another of our many clubs. This club allows students to get together with other students who share the same interest playing chess. A tournament is usually played at the end of the school year. Not only does the chess club teach the student how to play chess, but also patience, and developing the skill of getting along with others.

The Athletically

The Letterman's Club is open to all those who lettered in CIF sports. The purpose of this club is to support all athletic events at school. They follow closely with the Varsity Club on activities and responsibilities.

The Varsity Club is a club in which the outstanding athletes in any sport are recommended for membership. They are screened and if they have met the requirements are allowed to join. The club raises money for sports equipment and activities. The club is also one of the most spirited groups at the games.

1. Letterman Club Members: John Jones, Troy Wilson, Jerry Ozmond, Vince Bisogo, Mike French, Charlie Williams, Brad Taylor, Chip Parmelly, Dave Johnson, Dan McMillian, Bill Reimann, Clay Anderson, John Barnhart, Ron Koubisarian, Harry Schmidt, Bill Neushayfer, Bill Ogle, Bill Diaz, Ron Cron, Brian Gasdia, Kurk Welsh, Mike Daum, Chris Gage. 2. # Outstanding

The objective of the Letterwomen's Club is to bring together girls who have lettered or are in the process of lettering in one or more sports in all girls CIF activities. This Club also promotes spirit and cooperation.

The Volleyball Club has been designed for the purpose of allowing any and every student to learn the fundamentals of volleyball and participate in playing the sport competitively. The club meets Monday nights from 7:30 to approximately 9:00 in the gym, and is for the enjoyment of the student and the advisor — within a very relaxed atmosphere. This activity is forerunner to the C.I.F. volleyball season that began in April of 1975. Trips have been planned to watch the United States Volleyball Association Tournaments. Some of the participants include: UCLA, Long Beach State, Pepperdine, Santa Barbara, and others.

Wide World

The Ski Club teaches students who don't already know how to ski, and for those who do, the club gives them a chance to expand their knowledge of skiing even more. Both advanced and intermediate skiers go skiing at Snow Summit and other local areas. The two people responsible for this wonderful student opportunity are Wayne Wolfsburger and Art Luciani. The Ski Club also, from time to time, has guest speakers who give members tips on better skiing.

The Spikettes are a club consisting of girls interested in supporting our cross country and track teams. They go to all the meets and urge the teams on with their cheers. After each meet, Spikettes provide refreshments for the team. Their social activities include a car rally, a Halloween party, and a banquet at the end of each season. The girls also have activities within the club. They sold candy to help pay for their club Sweatshirts; they made stuffed animals for children in the hospital; and they held a Banquet to honor the most outstanding Spikettes.

of Sports

The Pep Club is another of our many clubs on campus. But this club is unique in itself. The Pep Club, run by Miss Eisenberg and President Darla Jepeway, is responsible for the painted signs found around campus before a school activity. They attend all the games and promote school spirit. The Pep Club makes school a happier environment to be in.

Modern Dance Club's objective is to join together to partake of the inner satisfaction and mutual stimulation that is received from working together and from participation in dance as a form of art expression. Also, it is to provide a favorable environment for the creation of dances by the group, which may be performed for their own artistic growth and for the enjoyment and education of theirs.

College Club offers interested students the opportunity to learn about a wide variety of public and private colleges. During the informative weekly meetings, students gain a better insight into the type of college choices that are available to them. The club organizes visitations to local colleges to give students a closer look at the college facilities.

The Business Club is dedicated to expanding the business world to all who are interested. There are many guest speakers from many different walks of life, thus giving students a wider variety of jobs to choose from.

Young Life is an outside club at school, directed at bringing people closer to Jesus. They meet weekly at different members' houses. Games are played, songs are sung, and the whole thing just brings people closer together.

The word Agape is a Greek word meaning the "Love Feast" which the early Christians had in the first century. Therefore the Agape Club is open to all Christians of whatever denomination. The purpose is fellowship, inspiration and Christian services to the school and community.

The California Scholarship Federation enables the more intelligent people of the school to get together and plan various activities throughout the year. You must have ten points on your semester report card to be eligible for membership. Some of this years activities included a trip to Disneyland and a Progressive Dinner.

Girls' and Boys' League are clubs which allow the whole student body to join in. Girls' League major activity is to choose a "Girl of the Month." The car rally is how Boys' League makes most of their money. All in all, both clubs help to get the student body more involved.

FACULTY FACULTY

FACULTY

Our faculty works at their job daily as educators, (one who instructs; one who shows how). Yet, each of their lives and jobs are linked with the feeling of caring and the joy of sharing the continuous adventures of the student body. Outside the classroom, they are respected friends, sharing along in the fun. Inside the classroom, they are respected leaders, teaching us about life and the world that surrounds us; so that we leave here, able to go forth to serve as leaders ourselves.

Administration

As we dedicate this yearbook to the Class of 1975, it seems appropriate that we should reflect on their time spent in these halls and their futures as they depart.

We believe the motto, "Teach me goodness, discipline, and knowledge" best describes our purpose as educators. It is to those ends that we have addressed ourselves during your time here. Each of you has been provided a meaningful opportunity to grow in these areas and we are hopeful that you have striven to achieve a full measure of maturity in learning the lessons of "goodness, discipline, and knowledge." We sincerely believe that there is nothing of greater importance than the acquisition of a good moral character and reputation. We have also attempted to convey to you that ultimately there is no more powerful weapon in the world than Truth, and no more exciting an adventure in life than its pursuit.

On behalf of my colleagues and our staff, with fond memories we ask that as you go forth you remember you entered here to learn so that you might go forth to serve.

Counselors

1. Mr. "Joe Cool" Rice shows his stuff on dress-up day. 2. Mrs. Fraser proudly exhibits her duck get-up. 3. Mrs. Holz models her stylish Korean gown. 4. "All right gentlemen, one quarter turn to the right!"

Counseling Staff: 1. Mr. Dean Killion. 2. Mr. Laurance Rice. 3. Mr. Dean Krebs. 4. Mrs. Kathryn Fraser. 5. Mrs. Shirley Holz. 6. Mr. Albert Scola. 7. Mr. Lyle Blew. 8. Mr. Wesley Bell.

The counseling staff is the biggest and best in Warren's history, with a total of eight men and women working together. Throughout the year, they counsel students to help them through high school, adding to that all the information and qualifications needed to go on to college or a vocational profession. Outside of that, they are just plain nice people who are there to help.

Secretaries

A big school and lots of people create loads of paper work and writing for our secretaries. Situated throughout buildings, they work for our administrators in the front office, counselors in the guidance center, and in the attendance office. Between pens, typewriters, and phones, our secretaries keep the books balanced and attendance in order.

1. Mrs. Bonnie Carter, Principal's Secretary. 2. Mrs. Elizabeth Sheline, Bookkeeper. 3. Mrs. Ellie Lowe, Secretary. 4. Mrs. Lillian Wegter, Guidance Secretary. 5. Mrs. Pauline Robinson, Records Secretary. 6. Mrs. Jimmie Hurst, Guidance Secretary. 7. Mrs. Francis Barnes, Nurse.

1. Mrs. Lords and Mr. Johnson reminisce the good old days at our annual 50's day. 2. Mrs. Hastings finds a lone place away from Les Fideles and Pep Squad to grade papers. 3. A demure look from Mrs. Ratzky shows that teachers aren't all bad. 4. Carla Moeller finds time to sneak a smile at the camera in typing class.

1. Mrs. Dahlin practices for her next years contract, teaching horticulture. 2. Ms. Hill extends Mr. Wolfsburger an admiring glance. 3. A muffled smile is caught on Miss Carman's face. 4. Mrs. Lords, surrounded by a "gang" of admirers. 5. Best friends, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Kennedy, meet on their free periods.

Each year the Seniors have an opportunity to select their class favorites. For the first time, the faculty were also given the chance to select their own "Faculty Favorites". They had fun picking and choosing among their fellow faculty members and then finally deciding on who they felt best exemplified the various categories.

"Funniest Laugh"

"Best Personality"

They have their Favorites too

"Prettiest Eyes"

1. It's not hard to see why Harvey Keller and Carol Lords were chosen as the couple with the funniest laugh -or- "If I could only remember the punch line!" 2. "Gaze into my eyes if you could only see them", smirk Valaree Wood and Gary Orsinger. 3. Here we have the trio known for their fun-loving and friendly personalities. Gil Bell, Cheryl Kennedy, and Larry Rice (can they really compete with the Three Musketeers?) 4. Mike Coppenger, our dedicated photography teacher, proudly exhibits his plaque after being honored as Young Educator of the Year. 5. "A one and a two and a RAH! RAH! RAH!" cheer Frank Talenfeld and Marge Scott, "most spirited."

"Most Spirited"

1. "What's a friendly person like you doing in a spot like this?" asks Joe Gough of Carol Ingersoll. 2. Mr. Allgood and Ms. Hill, "Most Intelligent", enjoy a few moments with a loaf of bread, a jug of wine, and thou. 3. Traveling incognito are the faculty comics, Bob Jones and "Ruthie" Ravenscraft - "Most Humorous". 4. A rare minute away from their teams, "Most Athletic", Coach Belladella and Sally Carman pose for their picture.

"Most Intelligent"

"Most Friendly"

"Most Humorous"

"Most Athletic"

In Memoriam:

Our beloved Mrs. Mildred Thompson who served as the secretary to the principal prior to her death in October, 1974.

Green be the turf above thee
Friend of my better days!
None knew thee but to love thee
Nor named thee but to praise.

Fritz - Green Helleck

A Tribute

A yearbook is designed to give recognition and to press into the book of eternity all the joys and tears of other days. I should like for the 1975 El Orosio to also express my sincere gratitude to the faculty, staff, and student body of Warren High School. It has been my great joy to serve as your principal during these last four years and I have nothing but heartfelt thanks for the outstanding support and kindness extended to me by so many of you.

Warren High School is a "better place" precisely because of her people. Her teachers and staff are persons who demonstrate a sincere concern about young people and put forth that extra effort to assist them toward maturity. I know of no other high school, faculty, and staff of such stature as ours. It is a daily pleasure to work with the Warren High School family and I shall carry that affection with me all my days.

Tom Robinson

We are grateful to those businesses who have purchased advertisements. Whether you knew it or not, without these advertisements our El Orosó would have no color or special effects, pictures, and very likely would contain fewer pages. These advertisements aid us in the cost of the El Orosó. To show your gratitude, please thumb through the advertisements and patronize them. They helped us so let's return the favor.

Any creative effort must be more than the conception of an idea; it must be the idea transformed into a real and tangible product that contains all that made it a marvelous thought. The creation of a yearbook depends on more than one idea and one person to conceive or complete it. Like any other major effort, its success depends on many people. The creation of this yearbook has introduced more than the final product to Warren's campus. It has introduced the concept of "deadlining" to many members of the student body and faculty. It has shown some that they were creative and were also responsible enough to stick out some rough times and make those times give many rewards.

This year was filled with change and people had to adjust. In spite of all the adjusting, people found time to be human. While keeping in touch with their feelings they reached out toward a different future even though many traditions seemed to be undermined by the pace at which that future came. It is the spirit of change this last year that this yearbook tried to capture and the humanity of our campus that this yearbook tried to illustrate. Without the help of a fine faculty who allowed time for those students who were involved with the yearbook to do work that sometimes interfered with their class time, neither change nor humanity would be reflected here.

The "74-75" EL OROSO staff is pleased to dedicate this special page to the great faculty of Warren High School. It was through their sincere patience that we were able to publish the Warren High EL OROSO. Therefore we would just like to say . . .

AND SO ENDS

As the year ends, I thought it would be kind of an experience to write a retrospect, (retrospect: a looking back on things past) so that we can always reflect back on the "good times" as well as the bad. Yet, I find myself at a sudden loss for words. This is not because there were neither good nor bad times, it is just that as I start thinking of times past, I find myself getting very sentimental and mushy. So first, I'd like to try to explain a very familiar place with very special people trying to do a very monumental task. I am speaking, of course, of T-1, The El Oroso Staff, and that 320 page 9 x 11" "strain on the brain". First off, and I speak for all "yearbookies", I will remember the place it happened, T-1. It is like a second home, an overgrown locker, a cafeteria, a place with comfortable tables after a night of hard work, a flag twirling room during tryout season, a sign holding room during football season, a place to hang clothes from Mrs. Kennedy's book shelf, an Editor ripping her hair out, a room out of the cold with a good heater. (ya know, I'm not kidding about that heater either) But most important, it was our Yearbook Room. Somewhere that was always there, always open, smiling at you and waiting to see you. We were kinda like food, the room being a stomach. It ate us and we produced the product from ourselves that would profit the body. (the body being the school). We produced the El Oroso. Day after day, the room got homier and homier, and after awhile, (despite all the janitor's efforts to keep it neat) it got to be our second home. It's not that it was messy, it's just that you could tell it was well lived in, with belongings of people distributed throughout. But these possessions were ours, and we, like one big family, lived here. I say a family because that is what we were. Brothers and sisters who loved each other, but also who fought sometimes like cats and dogs. A Mother? Of course we had one. Our mother, shoulder, and confidence, none other than our fearless leader, Mrs. Kennedy, more affectionately known as "Ms. K." I must say, I don't know of a more devoted teacher who spends her weekend days and sometimes nights with us, breaking through to the bitter end. She is still our respected teacher, but more important, our respected advisor and friend who we are grateful for, who eats hamburgers from McDonalds with us, who doesn't always agree with us, but takes the time to straighten things out just the same. There are other teachers who have helped us tremendously, but especially I would like to thank Mrs. Scott, our second fearless leader when Mrs. K wasn't there, and whose back room supplied us for the year with coffee and laughs from all her labbies. The next asset to our book was Mr. Rice. He graciously opened the room every Tuesday night so that we could get a few hours done before Mrs. Kennedy returned from her class, and checked on us on his breaks from night school teaching to make sure we were not cooked by the heater. (I told you that heater really worked). This last person is surely to receive the biggest kiss ever: Mr. Coppenger. Like everyone else in the school, we truly love him too; for it was in his darkroom that all those pictures you are looking at were made. He was always there to let Bruce work after and during school; and he was always there to talk and laugh with.

Now as for the staff. I can't explain the whole staff to you because that would be a book in itself. Though some things I will never forget. It started out with Yearbook Camp during the summer and never quit till now. When I was the only one on the first day of school with an armload of books coming from the car, I knew just what kind of a year it was going to be. We went thru 1,003 hamburgers, almost that many rolls of film, 63 temper tantrums, 6 cases of Linda's injuries, 10 all nighters and sunrises, 20 times of calling Sue at work in the afternoon to hear her say, "Capizzi Insurance", one mating season and birth of Kelly's rabbit, two sets of tryouts having Laurie and Darla making Flag Squad, 3,063 cups of coffee, 96 cups of tea for Kelly, Charlotte's dislocated hip from Easter Vacation, 953 final layouts, 67 grease pencils, 10 pair of croppers, lots of finished pages with no pictures, lots of scheduled pictures with no photographers, and 9 rolls of film on Miss Nimrod. We were the ones who used up all the toilet paper in the S Hall bathroom, and whose cars always got locked into the schoolyard after the janitors left. But that was okay because we would still be there when they came to open the gates in the morning. I wore out my fifth pair of deck tennies running down people and used 536 gallons of gas running to Pace, McDonalds, and Pronto Market for pictures and food during deadlines. Our bargain stereo buy at the beginning of the year has now blown up three times, and will probably blow up another four times next year. We never saw all that much of our beds this year, we never saw all that much of our families, in fact, we hardly saw our houses. We have seen each other with dirty hair, chewed fingernails, nervous acne, and slap-happily laughed to grossness after 1 o'clock A.M. We have listened to family problems, school problems, and girl/boy friend problems of emotionally disturbed yearbookies. Sue S. is still arguing with Papa Joe about distribution, Sue D. is still going to marry Larry, Sylvia is getting the shakes about next year, John is still bragging, Jacqui is still drinking coffee. All these things, along with numerous obscenities and unmentionable happenings have been a part of us. We thank God we were hardly ever caught sneaking out the gates during the day for those important errands, that we never got mugged coming back to school at night to work, that we never literally failed any classes, and that we never lost our family, best friends, or boy/girl friends as a result of jealousy to Yearbook.

Well, here you have us, the crazy Yearbook Staff of 1975. Don't say we wasted these two pages on a bunch of garbage on us. We used a lot of pages on all of you. Besides, you can use the extra space for autographs. We are now all insane, (at the beginning of the year only the returning yearbookies were), bugged eyed, our hair has rubbed off, and we are pooped. But we have memories of times that will never be forgotten. We will think of them often at first, then, later, not so often; but still they will always be untouched by time, maybe not as clear as at first, but they will be there, as special as ever.

All this, of course, you knew I was leading up to something, is a big THANK YOU. I'd like to thank the staff, who knows what I'm really like but puts up with me anyway, all my friends for giving me unforgettable memories, my Mom and Dad who I almost drove crazy this year and who always believed in me, my sister, Judy, whose room I turned into a yearbook study every night, Kerry, my "bestus friend," who has been my love and confidence since 8th grade, Kelly Jo, my yearbook partner and friend, who I love with all my heart, and Winnie the Pooh.

As I start to end this expose, I would like to say thank you to the student body, you were really fun to write a book about. We had hopes and dreams of giving you the best yearbook possible. We worked our tails off and did our best for you. If you like the book, I'm glad, really glad. If you don't, please don't tell us.
